You must attend race registration to collect your:

- 1) Race number and safety pins.
- 2) Timing Chip (Must not be taken off the number except after crossing the finish line on race day). If for any reason you do not start or even finish the race you must leave it with a finish official on race day or leave it at the Urban Jungle outlet from where it was collected. You may also post it to Malta Marathon, PO Box 1, Zebbug ZBG 1000, Malta.
- 3) Your Transport ticket if pre paid.
- 4) T-shirt.
- 5) Official Malta Marathon magazine.
- 6) Cloths bag, in which you may put your warm clothing at the start and which we will take to the finish for you.

You may also purchase a transport ticket to the start if not already pre-paid, tickets cost €5.00 per person. Transport for the Full Marathon and the 'Endo' Walkathon leaves at 0630 and for the Half Marathon at 0830, from the finish area in Sliema. HM runners can book the FM transport if they would like to see the FM and Walkathon participants start and then sight see Mdina whilst they wait for their own race to start.

The Land Rover Malta Marathon Race Registration and Prize giving venues and the finish of the Land Rover Malta Marathon and Half Marathon are located on the map shown below.

We wish you the best of luck with your training and look forward to seeing you at registration.

Malta Marathon Organising Committee

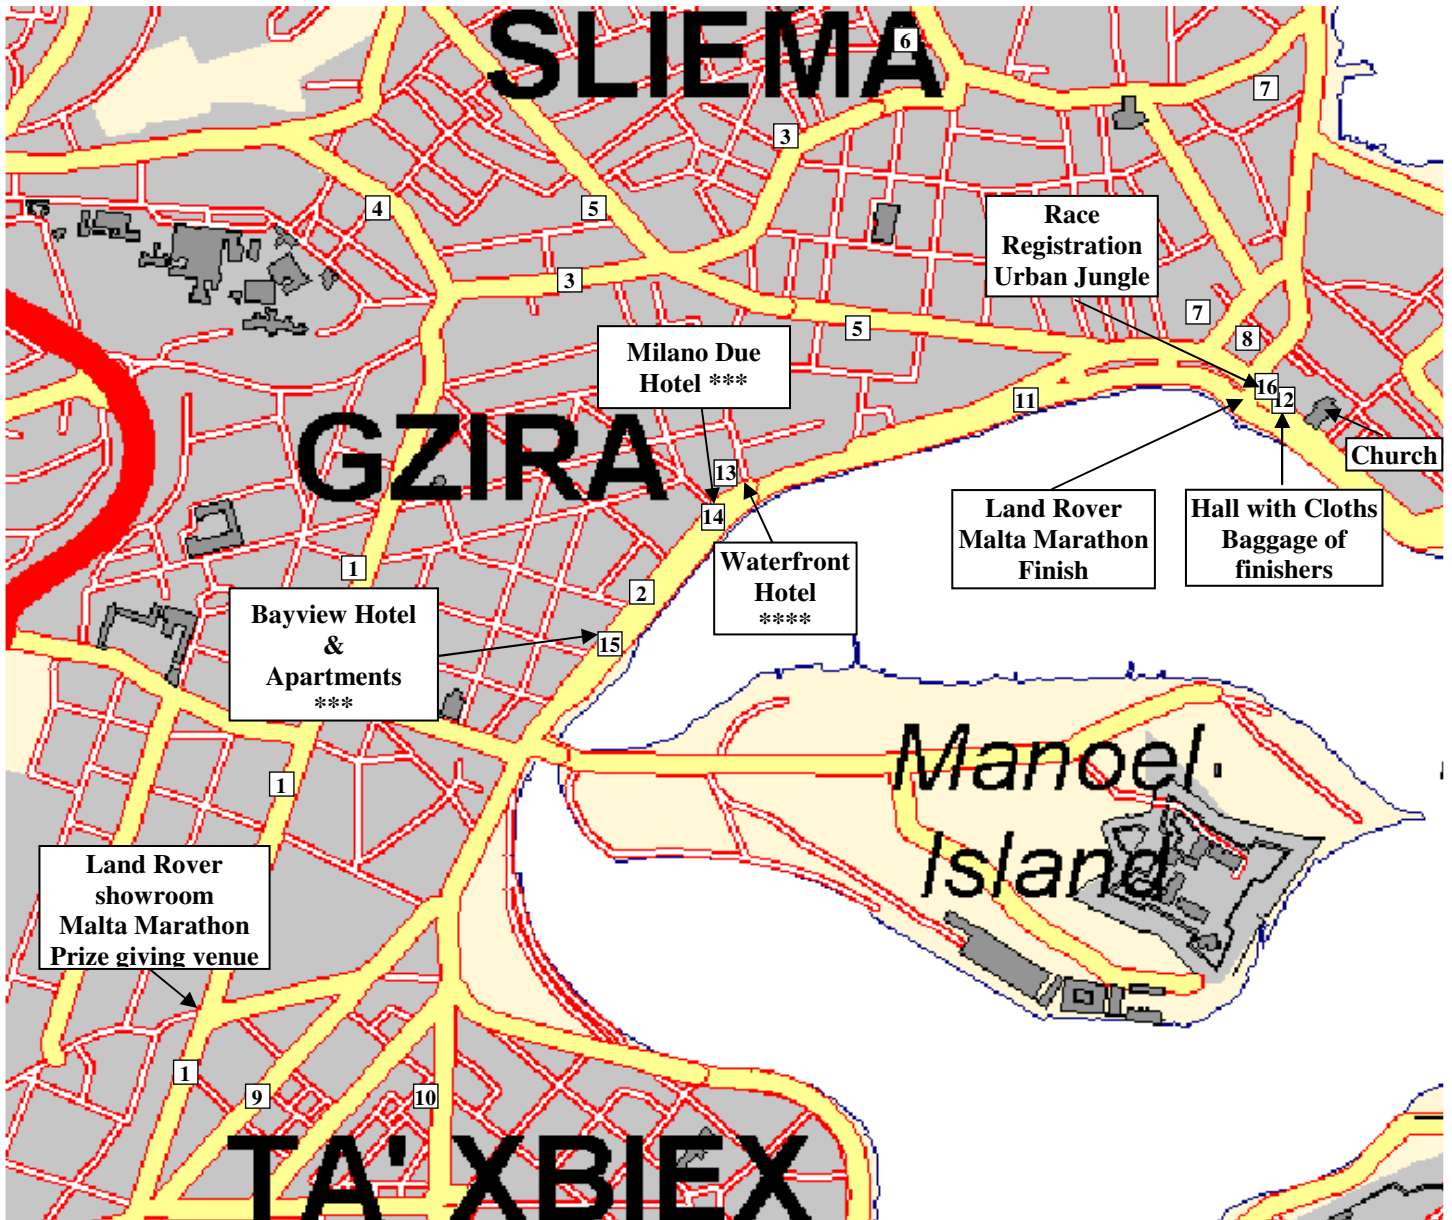

Prize giving

The prize giving ceremony will be held on the same evening of the Land Rover Malta Marathon and Half Marathon at 2030hrs at the Land Rover showroom in Gzira.

Be sure not to miss this, as with the many team and age category prizes given out, you may surprisingly be called up for one of these prizes which you wouldn't want to miss out on before going home.

Race finish photos will be available for purchase during prize giving, photos may also be purchased as from 27th February 2012 from Photo City, in South Street, Valletta.
